APPENDIX.

For the convenience of the Court, we have prepared an appendix to this brief, containing the constitutional provisions and statutes of Tennessee referred to herein.

ARTICLE II, SECTION 28.

"All male citizens of this State over the age of twenty-one years, except such persons as may be exempted by law on account of age or other infirmity, shall be liable to a poll tax of not less than fifty cents nor more than one dollar per annum. Nor shall any county or corporation levy a poll tax exceeding the amount levied by the State."

ARTICLE IV, SECTION 1.

"Every male person of the age of twenty-one years, being a citizen of the United States, and a resident of this State for twelve months, and of the county wherein he may offer his vote for six months next preceding the day of election, shall be entitled to vote for members of the General Assembly, and other civil officers for the county or district in which he resides; and there shall be no qualification attached to the right of suffrage, except that each voter shall give to the judges of election, where he offers to vote, satisfactory evidence that he has paid the poll taxes assessed against him for such preceding period as the Legislature shall prescribe, and at such time as may be prescribed by law, without which his vote cannot be received."

ARTICLE XI, SECTION 12.

"The State taxes derived hereafter from polls shall be appropriated to educational purposes, in such manner as the General Assembly shall, from time to time, direct by law."

CODE OF TENNESSEE, SECTION 1082.

"Every inhabitant between the ages of twenty-one and fifty years, except persons who are deaf, dumb, blind or incapable of labor and of earning a livelihood, shall pay an annual poll tax of one dollar for school purposes, which shall be collected by the trustee of the county and retained in the county where collected and apportioned to the schools of said county in the manner prescribed by law. Liabiliy for poll tax and the exemption therefrom is determined and fixed according to the age of the inhabitant, on the tenth day of January of each year."

CODE OF TENNESSEE, SECTION 1083.

"Any person incapable of labor, wishing to have himself declared exempt from the poll tax, shall apply to the quarterly county court by petition, stating the ground of his claim thereto; and if the court, upon hearing the petition and the testimony produced before them, be of opinion that the petitioner is incapable of labor, they shall declare him to be so, of record; and the production of a copy of the same, duly authenticated, to the collector, shall be his authority for omitting to collect the poll tax from such person."

CODE OF TENNESSEE, SECTION 1559.

"Every taxpayer shall pay his poll tax, if liable for poll tax, at or before the time he pays his property tax. No trustee shall receive from any taxpayer his property tax and receipt him therefor until his poll tax is paid, if liable for poll tax.

"Every trustee who violates this section or permits it to be violated by any of his deputies shall be held liable for all poll taxes that may become delinquent on account of such violation, and any auditor may proceed against such trustee who shall receive from any taxpayer his property tax and receipt him therefor before his poll tax is paid, if liable for poll tax; provided, the trustee shall not enforce this section where the taxpayer in good faith claims that he is not liable for the payment of a poll. Also, he shall be held liable for all poll taxes that may become delinquent on account of such violation, and any auditor may proceed against such trustee as a delinquent revenue collector."

CODE OF TENNESSEE, SECTION 2027.

"Every person in this state, who is otherwise a qualified voter under the constitution and laws, shall, as a condition precedent to the exercise of voting, furnish to the judges of election satisfactory evidence that he has paid the poll tax, if any, assessed against him for the year next preceding the election, not later than sixty days prior to the day of said election, without which his vote shall not be received; provided, if any voter has been wrongfully assessed for such poll tax, this article shall not apply to him."

CODE OF TENNESSEE, SECTION 2030.

"The satisfactory evidence of the voter's payment of his poll tax may consist of the fact that his name appears upon the certified list of voters of his voting precinct, which list, as well as one for each district in the county, is to be made out and furnished by the trustee of each county to the chairman of the board of election commissioners of said counties, giving the name of each voter of the respective districts who has paid his poll tax, said lists to be made out and delivered to the chairman of the board of election commissioners fifty days before any general election, and by him delivered to the judges holding the election on or before the opening of the polls on election day."
